

PRODUCTION CONTROL

Production control:- Is the process of planning production in advance of operation ,establishing the extract route of each individual item part or assembly, setting, starting and finishing for each important item, assembly the finishing production and releasing the necessary orders as well as initiating the necessary follow-up to have the smooth of the enterpriser.

OBJECTIVE OF PPC

1) FULL USE OF PLAN CAPACITY:- Proper production planning & control includes effective utilization of plan capacity all resources of production such as main man money material etc

2) CONTINEUS FLOW OF PRODUCTION:- Production planning & control ensure regular study flow of production senses all the machines are put to maximum use for the regular production this help to supply the product to the consumers and establish in the market

3) ESTEMET OF RESOURCES:- It help to the resource production activity recluses like men,money,material etc should be available for the sati cent production the estimate in proper quantity quality & quality is maid on the basic of market demand.

4) PROPER INVENTORY CONTROL:- Inventory control activity is are important for production process it helps to avoid over stocking & under stocking of recourses such as raw material spare part etc it help to maintain balance stock of recourse. In short inventory control means keep balance between demand and supply of required resources and at the same proper stock of finish goods is maintain to meet regular demand for customer.

5) TEAM WORK:- Production planning & control required team work among the employees and in various departments like purchase, production, packaging, marketing etc. The production department works in close co-operative with other departments such as finance and development & R & D (MIS) and dispatching department.

6) REDUCE WASTAGES:- Because of proper inventory of raw material there is the proper material handling which helps in minimizing wastages of raw material thereby directly it helps to increase profit and reduce wastage.

7) IMPROVEMENT IN PRODUCTIVITY:- Production planning and process utilize maximum manpower specific technique training.

8) BETTER WORK ENVIRONMENT:- Proper production planning & control provide better work environment to the worker they get good facility, salary and wages etc. Incentive this is because the company is making good production & profit and maintained quality of the products. It facility equality improvement as necessary checks are undertaken at regular intervals. Therefore it helps to maintain TQM in the organization.