1. Promotion Of Research Culture Among Staff And Students

Title of the Practice

1. Promotion of Research Culture Among Staff and Students

Context

- Higher Education demands continuous upgradation of knowledge through research.
- Staff members are encouraged to undertake various research activities under CAS.
- In order to participate in research conferences and competitions students are inspired and motivated to undertake research activities.

Objectives

- To demonstrate high level critical reflection on interrelationship between theory and practice and ability to take decisions based on analysis and investigation.
- To develop teaching and learning research oriented consciousness among staff and students.

Practices

- Enrolment of teaching members for Doctoral Studies.
- Publication of research papers in various ISSN and ISBN numbered conference proceedings and peer-reviewed journals.
- Students carry out primary data collection through questionnaire/survey/telephonic interviews/google forms and submit final report for their project work and conferences as well.

Obstacles faced

- Funds to carry out research activities.
- Budgeting at the beginning of the academic year, applying for funds from various funding agencies like UGC, ICSSR etc., accepting sponsorships from various Institutions are the strategies implemented.
- Among the students community, there is not only lack of awareness on research and but also on the importance of research. Among the teaching fraternity, there is lack of motivation.
